Hotel recommendations for the 8th Bremen Symposium

City tax

In Bremen, a city tax of 5% is charged on the net overnight price for accommodation (in addition to VAT). Please indicate your institution's address as the billing address when booking or paying so that you can prove that you are traveling on official business and do not have to pay the city tax. Your hotel or the organization team can provide you with more details.

Disclaimer

The nightly rates listed below are non-binding.

Please book as soon as possible. There are usually several other conventions taking place at the same time, so hotels in Bremen are often fully booked at this time. Some of the hotels marked with * in the list below have set aside a contingent of rooms at special rates for the participants of the Bremen symposium. Please request the codes from the organization team after you have registered for the conference.
